Dear Parishioners,

I wish to thank Kathy Bartoszek, the Fundraising Commission and all the volunteers that helped to make the Chinese Auction a wonderful event. I am grateful to everyone who made baskets and gave donations. I am thankful for this event, which helps us defray the expense of our church roof, which cost us $88,800.00. We have not paid all the bills for the Chinese Auction yet. Once we have, the profit will be posted in the bulletin.

As of May 31st the remaining balance on the church roof is $12,069.99. I appreciate everyone who has been making their pledge payments to the Rooted in Faith, Forward in Hope Campaign. I am grateful to everyone who works on and supports our fundraisers; those who continue to make memorial gifts and those using the Raise the Roof envelope that is in the monthly envelope packet. Your generosity is overwhelming and I am grateful for your support.

On Tuesday, June 17th, Slavic Village Development will be having a meeting in our hall at 7 PM. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting. It will be an update on the Fleet Avenue Project. Please come and hear about this project and its impact on our neighborhood.

After Mass, the festivities will continue until 7 PM. I hope all of you can drop by for an afternoon of fellowship and fun.

Prayers and Best Wishes!

Gratefully in Christ,

Sunday, June 15th      Father's Day

Happy Fathers Day! May God bless all Fathers with the graces needed to fulfill their vocation of taking care of the needs of their families. A father is a man who loves without cost to his children and tries to raise them to be fully human creatures with the abilities to make a difference in our world. This Father's Day, let your dad know that you appreciate all his efforts.

Strength--Your strength in helping me to tell right from wrong was a great gift.

Honor--You taught me that to honor myself was a way to honor the God who made me.

Faith--Thanks Dad for having faith in me, when I was not sure I had faith in myself.

Love--You loved me even when I did not love myself. For that I am grateful.

STEWARDSHIP - In today's second reading St. Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family." St. Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the Church there is a bond of family, yet plenty room for variety. Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?

Please remember these individuals, who have been called to the priesthood in your daily prayers.

A Message from our St. Vincent DePaul Society

Food expired? Don't be so quick to toss it. Use by dates contribute to millions of pounds of food wasted each year. Use by and Best by are indications of foods peak of freshness, it does not indicate that the food is spoiled or unsafe to eat. Sell by is for retailers to rotate stock and means nothing to the consumer. (Source CNN Health)

Karen's Corner

Did you know that the Bible contains stories of the good, the bad and the so-so? There are reasons why these stories are included in Scripture. These stories show us that we can repent and be forgiven; they tell us that there are consequences to all actions and they tell us what happens to the faithful and the not so faithful.

For example, In 1 and 2 Kings, the stories of Saul, David, Jezebel, and Rahab are all included even though they were holy people who had done some bad things because they were human! Saul was Israel's first king and was anointed by the prophet Samuel. He started out as a good and loving ruler, but after suffering a mental breakdown, he became extremely jealous of David and began to disobey God. He eventually killed himself after losing a battle to the Philistines. David was the most famous king of Israel. He became an instant hero after defeating Goliath with a slingshot. David was also a musician, poet, shepherd and a just ruler. Most of the book of Psalms was written by David. David spent years on the run from the jealous Saul, but even though he wanted to be king, he had too much respect for "God's anointed one", King Saul, to overthrow him while he was still alive. Yet, David made mistakes. He fell in love with Bathsheba, the wife of one of his generals, and even had a hand in causing the general's death in order to marry Bathsheba. Although God forgave David, there were consequences that lasted for the rest of his life. Jezebel was a Baal worshiping princess from Phoenicia and the wife of the seventh king of Israel, Ahab.

1 Kings 21:28 gives a clear picture of their reign: "No one was more determined than Ahab to disobey the Lord. And Jezebel encouraged him." Ahab began to worship Baal because of Jezebel; but the last straw was when they wanted a vineyard belonging to another man who wouldn't sell. So they plotted to have him put to death on false charges. The prophet Elijah sent Ahab a message from God telling him that he would die and Jezebel's body would be eaten by dogs, all of which came true. Then there was Rahab, one of only four women mentioned in the genealogy of Jesus in the gospel of Matthew. She was a "special" inn keeper in the city of Jericho. After the death of Moses, Joshua became the leader of the Israelites, and as they approached Jericho, he sent two spies into the city to see how well the city was guarded. They came to Rahab's place and she recognized them as being holy men, for she had heard of the Israelite God and accepted Him. When soldiers of the city came to Rahab to get the spies, she hid them in her bundles of flax. She made a deal with the spies that she would not tell anyone about their army if they would save her and her family. So the spies told her to hang a red cord from her window where all would see it and know not to attack that family. When the battle was won by Joshua, Rahab and her family joined the Israelites in the Promised Land.

These stories tell us it is ok to be human as long as we repent of our sins and shortcomings. Read about Josiah, Hezekiah, Solomon, Rehoboam and others. They are great stories!

See you soon!
Karen
