STEWARDSHIP –In today's Gospel and reading from the letter of St. Paul we hear of the gift of the Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In our devotional life we make the sign of the cross and recite the "Glory Be" as an expression of our faith as a Trinitarian people. But what does it mean for Christian stewards to accept in a practical way the experience of God in this three-fold gift? Is it a call to share our own life in community, with compassion and love, and to work for healing, justice, peace and unity? Is it an invitation to invite others into fellowship with us in the unity of the Father, Son and Spirit?

The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is June 26th-28th at the Clarion Inn; Hudson, Ohio. Call Lori and Scott at 330-305-963 to register. Dates and Registration are also available at WWME.org

The Newburgh Heights Annual Community-Wide Garage Sale will be held on Friday, June 5th & Saturday, June 6th. Permits are available for sellers. Maps are also available. Both are at the Village Hall, 4000 Washington Park Blvd. Call 216-641-4650 if you have questions.

All are invited to attend Catholic Renewal Ministries 33rd Annual Conference to be held on July 17th & 18th at Magnificat High School in Rocky River. Guest speakers will be Lloyd and Nancy Greenhaw and Father John Gordon, and local clergy Bishop Roger Gries and Father Damian Ference. This year's theme is "Father Make Us One." For registration information call Shirley or Tom Fumich at 440-327-1226 or visit www.crmweb.org. Advance registration through July 8th is $30 and at the door $35. Come experience the healing power and gifts of the Holy Spirit.

KAREN'S KORNER

Did you know that there are certain platitudes that make me crazy? One of them is “God only gives you what you can handle.” Well, what if you can’t handle it? Does that make you a bad person? People have said, “Well, it’s biblical!” Sorry, no it isn’t! The closest I can come is from 1 Corinthians 10:13 which says, “No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it”. Hmmmm, doesn’t say exactly the same thing, does it?

I also go crazy when people say, “Well, God took him/her to heaven.” Sorry, death is not of God! God does not cause death or disease or other suffering! God Is Love. 1 John 4:18 says, “There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love.” When sin entered the world, so did suffering, disease and death. These things are not the result of God, but of the evil that entered the world in the Garden of Eden.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: “Angels and men, as intelligent and free creatures, have to journey toward their ultimate destinies by their free choice and preferential love. They can therefore go astray. Indeed, they have sinned. Thus has moral evil, incommensurably more harmful than physical evil, entered the world. God is in no way, directly or indirectly the cause of moral evil. He permits it, however, because he respects the freedom of his creatures and mysteriously, knows how to derive good from it.” (311) in the YouCat, (Youth Catechism) the explanation is clarified a little more: “Evil in the world is an obscure and painful mystery. Even the Crucified asked his Father, ‘My God, why have you forsaken me?’” (Matt. 27:46) Much about it is incomprehensible. One thing, though, we know for sure: God is 100 percent good. He can never be the originator of something evil. God created the world to be good, but it is not yet complete. In violent upheavals and painful processes it is being shaped and moved toward its final perfection. That may be a better way to classify what the Church calls physical evil, for example, a natural catastrophe. Moral evils, in contrast, come about through the misuse of freedom in the world. “Hell on earth” – child soldiers, suicide bombings, concentration camps—are usually man-made. The decisive question is therefore not, “How can anyone believe in a good God when there is so much evil?” but rather, “How could a person with a heart and understanding endure life in this world if God did not exist?” Christ’s death and Resurrection show us that evil did not have the first word, nor does it have the last. God made absolute good result from the worst evil. We believe that in the Last Judgment God will put an end to all injustice. In the life of the world to come, evil no longer has any place and suffering ends. God sees the end, we do not. God does not cause pain and suffering. Period. But He helps us through it!

Keep your eyes and ears open and I will see you soon! Karen

Dr. Carolyn Woo, President & CEO of Catholic Relief Services will speak at St. Clarence Parish, 30106 Lorain Road on Thursday, June 4th from 7-8:3 pm. This FREE talk, titled Faith, Action Results will describe how CRS responds to the call of the Gospel to serve the poorest and most vulnerable.
