Dear Parishioners,

I wish to express my thanks to everyone who was involved in the planning and celebration of our

Bereavement Mass on November 11th. It was a beautiful event. I express my gratitude to Pauline Kowalski, Anthony Laboy, Jan Vitt, and Sue McDonough. Also our liturgical ministers with a special thanks to Ralph Bednarz, our Schola and the choir of St. Sebastian Parish in Akron. The church was close to full. We had eighty-five (85) people at the Bereavement Social which was held in our hall after the mass. We thank Fortuna Funeral Home for sponsoring the social. We remembered twenty-four (24) people who died from November 1, 2016 thru October 31, 2017. Their families were most appreciative of the Mass and the Social.

We thank our Holy Name Society for the delicious French Toast Breakfast, which they held on Sunday, November 12th. I heard that sixty (60) people attended the breakfast. We would always like to see more people from our parish respond to these invitations for us to come together.

We celebrate our Parish Thanksgiving Day Mass on Thursday, November 23rd at 9 am. Grateful for God's Blessings, we gather together to remember, give thanks and to share our blessings. All parishioners are invited to bring canned goods and paper products to mass that day. These can be placed on the altar steps and the table by St. Joseph's altar.

The collection that day will go to our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society to serve our parishioners when there is an emergency need.

Right now, the items needed are cereal, tuna fish, canned soup, canned fruit and spaghetti sauce. We thank our St. Vincent de Paul Society for helping to distribute the food. We thank you for your generous donations of money, food and paper products. We have a rectory food pantry. Last fiscal year, we helped four hundred sixty-five (465) people with food.

Advent is around the corner. We will have an Advent Program on Sunday, November 26th at 12:15 pm in our social hall. Our theme this year is "There is Room for One More." This will be a good way to begin the Advent Season.

On Monday, December 4th we will have our Advent Communal Penance Service at 7 pm in our church. We will have five (5) priests to hear your confessions. Please plan to attend this service to prepare a place in your heart for Christ to be born this Christmas.

As Thanksgiving approaches, I thank God for each one of you. Every person is a blessing to our parish. In the words of St. Paul, "I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers." (Ephesians 1:16)

Happy Thanksgiving!

Prayers & Best Wishes,
Father Jasany

A Prayer for Thanksgiving

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

Let us pray... God our Father,
Graciously accept from your humble people a thankful heart and spirit. Everything we have and are able to share with others ultimately comes from your love of your creations. Often we think that everything we have is our own creation; we ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude, that we may always know that all good gifts come from you.

We ask this through Christ our brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Friday, November 24th

Please Note that the rectory will be closed on Thursday, November 23rd and Friday, November 24th.
Enjoy your Thanksgiving Holiday!
