God bless you for your generosity and support of our parish!

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

We honor our mothers, both living and deceased on this Mother's Day weekend. We are indeed grateful that God has placed these wonderful women as a blessing in our lives. We pray for our mothers, that God will continue to bless them with good health, love, happiness and peace.

Let us honor both our Heavenly Mother and our earthly mothers. We are grateful for all the many sacrifices which they have made on our behalf.

A Jewish proverb states that "God could not be everywhere, so He made Mothers." Of course, God is everywhere. The proverb is a way of saying God's unconditional love comes to us through our Heavenly Mother and our earthly mother.

On another topic, on Friday, April 25th I had a small electrical fire in my bedroom ceiling due to frayed wiring that was not properly insulated or grounded. An electrical evaluation was done. The wiring on the second and third floors of the rectory is not up to code. Therefore, this is presently a hazardous situation in that an electrical fire could take place in a light fixture. I am taking steps with YES Electric to correct the problem and to bring the wiring up to code.

Lastly, THANK YOU for your generosity to Operation Rice Bowl this Lenten season.

Through your participation we raised $1200.86. Our contributions helped to make a difference in the lives of millions of people around the world suffering from poverty & hunger. Again, thank you for your sacrifices and generosity.

Happy Mother's Day to All!

Prayers & Best Wishes!
Father Jasany

STEWARDSHIP – In today’s first reading Peter tells his listeners that if they want to follow Jesus they must go against the world, to become what Christian stewards would consider “countercultural.” For stewards, being countercultural can consist of surprisingly small decisions – small acts of reorientation to remind them daily that in spite of their life situation, their citizenship, financial status, or color of their skin, they belong, through their baptism, to a new world order in Jesus Christ. Stewards understand that their daily choices should witness to his gospel, not to the trends, attitudes or spending practices of their culture. Stewardship requires us to ask of our daily habits and decisions: “In the light of Christ’s Gospel, is this important.”

Karen's Corner

Did you know that there are two official prayer cards to our new Saints John the XXIII and John Paul II? On the front is a picture of each saint and on the back is an official prayer.

Here is Pope John XXIII's: Dear Pope John, Your simplicity and meekness carried the scent of God and sparked in people's hearts the desire for goodness. You spoke often of the beauty of the family gathered around the table to share bread and faith: pray for us that once again true families would live in our homes. Without outstretched hands you sowed hope, and you taught us to listen for God's footsteps as he prepares a new humanity: help us have a healthy optimism of defeating evil with good. You loved the world with its light and darkness, and you believed that peace is possible: help us be instruments of peace at home and in our communities. With paternal gentleness you gave all children a caress: you moved the world and reminded us that hands have been given to us not for striking, but for embracing and drying tears. Pray for us so that we do not limit ourselves to cursing the darkness but that we bring the light, bringing Jesus everywhere and always praying to Mary. Amen. And here is Saint John Paul II's: Oh, St. John Paul, from the window of heaven, grant us your blessing! Bless the church that you loved and served and guided, courageously leading it along the paths of the world in order to bring Jesus to everyone and everyone to Jesus. Bless the young, who were your great passion. Help them dream again, help them look up high again to find the light that illuminates the paths of life here on earth. May you bless families, bless each family! You warned of Satan's assault against this precious and indispensable divine spark that God lit on earth.

St. John Paul, with your prayer, may you protect the family and every life that blossoms from the family. Pray for the whole world, which is still marked by tensions, wars and injustice. You tackled war by invoking dialogue and planting the seeds of love: pray for us so that we may be tireless sowers of peace. Oh St. John Paul, from heaven's window, where we see you next to Mary, send God's blessing down upon us all. Amen.

These two men were very influential in helping the church become more vibrant and alive in the last 50 years. I hope you were able to see part of the ceremonies, if not you can view them on YouTube or Google if you have a computer.

Saint John XXIII has always had a special place in my heart because he was supposed to be an interim pope and not rock the boat. Instead he issued in huge changes in the Catholic Church with the calling of the Second Vatican Council. Saint John Paul has had a special place in my heart because he is from Poland and my ancestors were from Poland! He kept the faith alive in Poland during the Second World War and when as Pope he re-visited his home country, the people who gathered began to chant, "We want God! We want God!" with communist soldiers standing all around them. Our faith is alive and well! Let's continue what these two great men began!

See you soon!
