

Welcome!

It is with the joy of this Holy Season that we welcome everyone who has come to worship at this celebration of the Savior's

The time came for her to have her child and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

— Lk 2:6b-7

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.
Cover design ©Liturgical Publications Inc. Photo © John Hix, Sandra Caldwell from Bigstockphoto.com

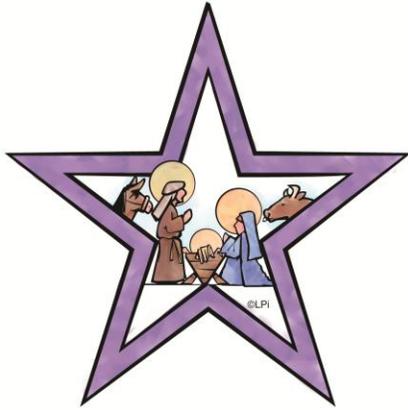

birth. If you are a new parishioner, a visitor, a relative of a parishioner, a familiar face or someone we will soon know better, your presence here honors us. Please join us as we give thanks and praise and glory to God!

On behalf of myself and the staff of St. John Nepomucene Church, we wish you and your family a Holy and Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

In Christ, Father Robert J. Jasany

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship on this great feast and we hope that you will return to pray with us often. As a church community, we offer many organizations and services to our members in addition to our weekly worship. If you have moved into the area, or are looking for a place for weekly worship we invite you to become a member of our parish community. Please feel free to take a registration form home with you. They are located near the entrance doors of our church. Please fill out the form and return it in the collection basket at church or mail to the rectory. You may also call the parish office at 216-641-8444 for more information or to register. May Christ be born in your heart anew this day, this Holy Season and may his Spirit grow in you throughout the New Year.

Did you know that Micah 5:2-5 says:
But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah,
who are one of the little clans of Judah,
from you shall come forth for me
one who is to rule in Israel,
whose origin is from of old,
from ancient days.

Therefore he shall give them up until the time
when she who is in labor has brought forth;
then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great
to the ends of the earth;
and he shall be the one of peace.

Peace be with you in this season!
Merry Christmas!

See you soon! Karen

During this Holy Season of Our Lord, we especially remember those who are sick and those who care for them, that they know the abiding Love of God through our prayers.

We pray also for our Loved Ones who have passed away, especially those who have passed away this year. When one dies, it is natural for the Christian community, bonded in Christ, to be concerned for the welfare of that member who is no longer with them. Just as we show care & concern for one another in this life, so too, we continue that care and concern for one another after death. We intercede asking for God's continued care for them in death, just as God was concerned for them in life.

Because of our strong bond in faith, we believe that those who have died continue to be connected with us, concerned about us as we are about them. This leads us in faith to believe that they too, can intercede with God for us, just as we intercede for them. This mutual faith bonding beyond death is what we mean by the Communion of Saints.