Sunday, January 4th
Epiphany of the Lord

Throughout Germany at this time of year, you will find most main doorways inscribed with the following:

20+C+M+B+15. Children known as Sternsinger (star singers) dress up as the Magi and go door to door, requesting candy for themselves and money for the Church. As they leave, the house is blessed, and the inscription written in chalk. The 20 and 15 refer to the year, the CMB are said to represent either Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar-the Magi-or the Latin Christus Mansionem Benedicat, which means "Christ, bless this home."

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, in which we remember the adoration of the newborn Christ by three wise men from the East. This should leave no doubt in anyone's mind just how far and wide the promise of a Savior had spread. These representatives of pagan religions from other lands were determined to pay their respects; it was as if they were born to do this-to acknowledge in some way the beginning of the greatest reign of the greatest king of all. The Epiphany is the third manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation, following the Annunciation and the birth of Christ. Today is truly the beginning of the paschal mystery.

A Stewardship Moment

Today’s Gospel reading reveals the story of the magi who come from the east to pay homage to Jesus, the newborn King. The story of the magi teaches Christian stewards three Christmas truths: God, in the person of Jesus Christ is present and active in the world, and good stewards strive daily to follow his star. Second, each of us, no matter our circumstances or station in life, has a gift to bring to the Lord. And finally, our life’s journey always leads to Christ, even when at times, we do not know where the road is taking us.

Did you know most of us want to read Scripture, but we don't know how to read Scripture? As we get ready for a new year, it might be a good time to dust off your Bible and join me in a Scriptural journey. Along with my Bible, I will be using several commentaries, a Bible dictionary and a book by Jeffrey Cavins called, "Walking with God: A Journey through the Bible" as my references. Here are some guidelines to our journey together: Make sure you have a Catholic Bible! There are 73 books in the Catholic Bible and 66 in Protestant Bibles. If your Bible has the book of Tobit, you're ok. Use a good version such as the New American Bible, Catholic Study Bible or the Revised Standard Version Catholic Edition. Use a book of Bible maps, or look up the maps on line because the places and location of events of the Bible are very important to our understanding. Having good Bible tabs for your Bible helps to find things much more quickly. There are other good things you can find on line such as commentaries and Bible Dictionaries without having to purchase them. OK, so St. Jerome says in the Catechism, article 133, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." Many of us went through at least 12 years of Catholic education and ended up with what Cavins calls, "a heap of Catholicism." We learned lots of "stuff" but we don't know how to access that stuff! The Catechism divides what we believe into four pillars: Creed, Sacraments and Liturgy, Life in Christ and Prayer. Along with a particular plan of reading the Bible, the Catechism helps us to see the story, the Big Picture, of our lives with God. Cavins gives us a plan to read the Bible in as little as 3 months. How? By pointing out the essential 14 books that tell us the story of salvation history.

The rest of the books are supplemental to the story. If you read 4 chapters a day, you can do it in 3 months. One chapter a day? It will take about a year. One advantage to this system is that it gives us an internal system to grow on for the rest of our lives! The first section is the "Early World". So for this week, at one chapter a day, begin with Genesis 1 – 7. This will take you to next Sunday! Want to do four chapters a day? Then begin with Genesis 1 – 28! So what do we need to know about Genesis? It was not the first book of the Old Testament to be written. In Genesis 1 and 2, we see two very different Creation accounts. Why two? Part of the stories were borrowed from other literature of the time under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. God brings form to the earth and gives us a place to dwell. The first 11 chapters bring us the crisis of humanity and its solution. The fall of Adam and Eve; the story of Cain and Abel, Noah and the great flood, the Tower of Babel. Don't skip the genealogies! There is important information there! The good news of salvation history is proclaimed in Genesis 3:14-15. Don't forget to join me on Friday, January 16, 2015 for Friday Night at the Movies! We will be watching "The Way", starring Martin Sheen.

See you soon! Karen
