Dear Parishioners,

We welcome Paul A Birk Jr., who will be making his Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion at our 4 pm

Mass on Saturday July 18th. His fiancée, Lauren Kingsmill was fully received into the Church at our parish two years ago at our Easter Vigil. They will be getting married here on December 5, 2015. We also welcome Sophia Raine Gindlesperger to our parish community. She will be baptized after our 11 am mass on Sunday, July 19th.

We are grateful to Karen and Chuck Beargie for being active registered parishioners of St. John Nepomucene Parish Community. Both played with our contemporary music ministry at many of our 11 am Masses. Chuck was a member of our Parish Finance Council.

Karen Beargie taught music and computer in our parish Catholic grade school for five years. When our school closed, Karen taught music at St. Michael Catholic grade school in Independence. She also worked here at St. John's part-time as our Parish Pastoral Minister. She instructed Paul A. Birk Jr. in our Catholic faith. Karen assisted with RCIA, Pre-Baptism Instruction, Scripture Sharing, Days of Adult Education and Days of Recollection. Karen was on our Pastoral Council, Liturgy Commission and Stewardship Commission. She has served us as a Pastoral Minister for the last five years. Karen did innovative things to educate and bring people together such as the Friday Night at the Movies. Karen also wrote a weekly column for our Parish Bulletin.

A Mass of Thanksgiving and Farewell will be celebrated for her on Sunday, July 26th at 11 am. A reception will follow in the hall. Please plan to attend the 11 am Mass on Sunday, July 26th and go over to our school for the reception in our school hall. It is a time to thank Karen and wish her well in her future endeavors. Both Karen and Chuck will be working in St. Louis, Missouri.

Prayers and Best Wishes,
Father Robert J. Jasany

STEWARDSHIP

The Letter to the Ephesians reminds us that Christ is creating a new world order: one that brings about relationships based on love, peace, reconciliation, hope and unity. As a Eucharistic community, we are stewards of Christ's new creation. How are we promoting peace and reconciliation? How are we showing love for our neighbors? What are we doing to encourage unity and understanding among those with whom we gather around the Lord's Table each week?

For those who are sick and those who care for them, may they receive comfort and strength through our prayers, remembering especially Mary Adams, Agnes Bartoszek, John Balciar, Gwen Beres, Bill Bican, Diyamol Binu, Mary Ann Betliskey, Bill Connors, Corrine Dawe, Dolores Dobransky, Jose Dybzinski, Kristin Hill, Lucy Konkoly, Madeline Koston, Judy Landolph, Cindi Magyar, Marilyn O'Meara, Nikki Milton, Suzanne Patton, Nancy Recko, Brianna Rhine, Elaine Stack, Dana Trzaska, Kindra Wisniewski and Rob Wisniewski.

May Our Loved Ones who have died rest in eternal peace in heaven, remembering especially Genevieve Leciejewski, whose funeral was this week.

For the Men and Women serving in the military, especially those from our parish and their families.

Karen's Corner

Did you know that Jeffrey Cavins was a Protestant minister for years after he left the Catholic Church? He eventually returned to the Catholic Church and I have mentioned him in my column before. He wrote the book "Walking with God: A Journey Through the Bible" and created the DVD series that I used in May. He has written another book called, "My Life on the Rock: A Rebel Returns to the Catholic Faith" which I have been reading. Jeff talks about how he left the Church and why he came back to Catholicism. It is a very powerful story, and one we should all read because in order to return to Catholicism, he explored the roots of Catholicism as it relates to Judaism.

I learned some very interesting things here! It begins with Romans 12:1, "I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." When people say they are "spiritual", but do not attend Mass, they are not giving their bodies to God in worship! Moses brought incredible order and form to worship. Much of what is said is how to dress, how to bless, which person does what and so on during a worship service. Prayer at that time, as it now, is highly public and liturgical! Judaism has a prescribed calendar of liturgical events, as does the Catholic liturgical calendar! We have been and continue to be liturgical beings, beings that need all of our human senses to be part of our worship. Think about it: we see the others around us and watch the sacrifice of the Mass at the altar.

We speak the prayers and sing out our worship. We smell the candles and incense and we taste the Eucharist, both body and blood! We touch the host, we offer each other the sign of peace and we hear the homily and the liturgical prayers.

We need to express our love for God with more than just words! You know, Jesus did not abolish the Passover at the Last Supper, he transformed it. Ritual is a deep part of our Catholicism, and Jesus gave Passover a whole new meaning, and in continuing to celebrate the Eucharist, we keep ourselves connected to the past and to the present and to the future! Mass is not "boring", it is not the "same old thing", rather it is our connection with each other and with the past and future!

Every time I attend Mass, a word or a phrase will jump out at me and I will chew on it for the week. For example, I still love the phrase, "Make holy, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall".

Think about it! Father is asking that the Holy Spirit come upon the gifts – and all of us – like the dew! We are completely surrounded with the Holy Spirit and there is no place on our bodies the Holy Spirit cannot cover! Just like dew covers everything. What a wondrous thing to happen to us! I think we get "bored" at Mass because of our own concerns. Mass is a place to come and put that all down and receive the Holy Spirit and the Eucharist to strengthen us for the journey! We should leave refreshed and ready to do the work of our Lord! I know I do! Keep your eyes and ears open and I will see you soon!
