This weekend, we pray for all our fathers living and deceased. We will pass out pens after the homily to all fathers. On the pens is written – Father, Friend, Hero, Teacher, Provider. We wish all of our fathers a Happy Father's Day! May we model our behavior after Our Father in Heaven.

On June 20th the scaffolding should start to go up for the work on our towers and church masonry. Please continue to help us fund this project by your use of the "Touch Up the Towers" envelopes. Also, please continue the practice of making memorial gifts in honor of our loved ones who have died. These gifts will go towards this project. May the generosity of those who built this church live on in us.

June 27th thru July 8th, I will be on vacation. We will be suspending the weekday Masses during this time. We hope to strip and wax the church floors in the two sacristies. Father Joseph Callahan and Father Matt Glaros have graciously volunteered to assist with funerals during this time.

Father's Day

A father is a man who loves without cost to his children and tries to raise them to be fully human creatures with the abilities to make a difference in our world. Some fathers are successful, some are not. However, almost all try their best. This Father's Day, let your dad know that you appreciate all his efforts.

Strength--Your strength in helping me to tell right from wrong was a great gift.
Honor--You taught me that to honor myself was a way to honor the God who made me.
Faith--Thanks Dad for having faith in me, when I was not sure I had faith in myself.
Love--You loved me even when I did not love myself. For that I am grateful.

STEWARDSHIP – In today's Gospel Jesus tells his disciples that if they wish to follow him they must deny themselves and take up his cross daily. In Jesus' time the cross was not something nice or cool that one could hang on the wall or around one's neck. It was an instrument of torture and execution. His point: We are to lay down our lives and let him take control. Good stewards hand over their lives to Jesus no matter the cost. They realize that all they take with them into the next life is their relationship with Christ Jesus. What are we pursuing? A life that tries to bring fulfillment to ourselves or a life that brings us closer to Jesus?
