Dear Parishioners,

Readings for the Week of July 10, 2016

Thank you to everyone who gave generously to Father Dennis Christz, C.P.P.S., who was with us last weekend at our masses to ask our support for the work of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. If you did not attend Mass here last weekend and would still like to contribute to the Annual Mission Appeal, your contribution may be put in an envelope marked to Mission Appeal and place in the offertory basket today and also the weekend of July 16th & 17th. If you write a check, please make it payable to St. John Nepomucene Parish.

Stewardship – Today's Gospel turns our attention to one of Jesus' most familiar stories, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. It is about living how God intended us to live: to acknowledge God's divine love and compassion lavished upon us, and to extend that love and compassion upon others without reservation. We can find a lot of reasons for not stopping to help someone. We can talk ourselves out of being Good Samaritans. Strangers are not our responsibility, or are they? Good stewards understand that God's mercy is a gift that must be shared and that doing the right thing, acting as Jesus would act toward others, is the only course of action for one who lives according to the demands of the Gospel. How might you be a Good Samaritan this week?
