Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Archbishop Sheen said "Some people give to the missions by going; others go to Missions by giving." Please use the envelope in your packet for this worthy cause.

Did you know that every Roman Catholic Christian is called to be a missionary to the people whom he or she meets?

There is a poem that goes something like this:

"You are writing a Gospel a chapter a day,
By what you do and what you say.
Now, whatever you say or whatever you do,
whether distorted or true,
What is the Gospel according to you?"

When Jesus walked the earth, Our Lord personally invited people to follow Him. As followers of Christ, we too are called to invite people in our circle to come to Jesus.

It would be noble and worthwhile for you to begin with your family, relatives, friends classmates and co-workers. You could say I am going to Mass, would you like to come with me? I am going to confession, would you like to come with me? Our church is having an event, would you like to come?

One imaginary scenario of the Last Judgement is this...You standing before Our Blessed Lord and Christ asking you who did you bring with you? How do you bring people to Christ?

It is by extending an invitation. You can always invite; do not invest your self esteem in the response. Life about the Sower and the seed. Send out seeds of invitations that can grow.

Where do I begin? You begin with your own family, your own relatives, your own friends, your classmates and co-workers.

Pray to the Holy Spirit. Ask the Spirit to guide and direct you. Pray Holy Spirit, is there someone who I am called to invite to come to Jesus? Act on the intuitions that come to your mind and the promptings that come to your heart.

In the final analysis that is what life here is about. Coming to Jesus and inviting other people to come to Jesus.

May God open your hearts to extend this important invitation to the people whom God has placed in your lives. Together may we all extend this most important invitation.

Prayers and Best Wishes!
Father Jasany

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Sunday, October 29th

Today is Priesthood Sunday. This weekend especially we celebrate the gift of priesthood in the life of the Church. It is a time for us to reflect on the ministry that our priests share with us when we gather at the table of the Lord; when we call them in our times of need. Consider sharing a personal note or card of thanks with a priest who has touched your life. We pray also that the ministry and witness of our priests will inspire many of our young people. May their hearts be open to hearing and responding to God's call in their lives.

We pray also for Father Jasany and Father Glaros, who minister in faithful service to all of us and to the Lord.
