Dear Parishioners,

Advent is around the corner. Sunday, December 3rd is the First Sunday of Advent. Advent invites us to spiritual preparation for Christmas. We focus upon the Second Coming of Christ, when Christ will come to judge the living and the dead. We focus upon the First Coming of Christ, which is when the Son of God was born in the manger. Between these two comings, we are mindful of the God who comes to us in our present moments.

All are invited to come to our Advent Program this Sunday, November 26th at 12:15 pm in our parish hall. Our theme is "There is Room for One More." This will be a good way for us to spiritually prepare for the Seasons of Advent and Christmas. Please come over to the parish hall this Sunday for our Advent Program.

We hope to put up the larger Giving Tree, the Christmas Tree with the name tags for gifts for needy children this weekend. Please consider taking one or more name tags to provide Christmas gifts to needy children in our parish and in our neighborhood. Your gifts will be distributed by our St. Vincent de Paul Society and our Social Concerns Commission to children in our parish and also to children in our neighborhood through University Settlement. Please refer to the flyer in our bulletin.

On Monday, December 4th there will be the celebration of our Advent Communal Penance Service at 7 pm in our church.

We will have five priests present to hear your confessions. Let us heed the call of John the Baptist, "Prepare the Way of the Lord." Please plan to attend this spirit-filled event. Christ wishes to be born again in you, in the manger of your heart, and in your relationships with God and others.

The center of the Christmas celebration is experiencing Christ as Savior. He was born to save us from our sins. He wishes to be reborn in each of us. Open the doors of your heart to our Savior. Come to confession. Let the Christmas story be rewritten again in you.

Friday, December 8th is a Holyday of Obligation. It is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. All are required to go to Mass. We will have a 4 pm Vigil Mass on Friday, December 7th. We will also have an 8:30 am Mass and a 7 pm Mass on Friday, December 8th.

Let each of us take steps to "Prepare the Way of the Lord" during the upcoming Season of Advent. May all of us experience the Gift of Our Savior's Presence this Christmas.

Prayers & Best Wishes! Father Jasany
